Bruddah John Fingerpicking Excercise

Taro Patch Traditional Pau

In measures 1 and 2, the bass and melody notes fall on the same beats. Try alternating fingers for the melody. In the next two measures, notice that the final beat is played by the thumb alone.

Measures 5 and 6 introduce melody notes played between the thumb strokes. Finally, the last measurer introduce a variation of the thumb pattern.

Practice Bruddah John until you can maintain a steady alternating bass throughout the piece.
